

BIOGRAPHY

JANIS MITCHELL

---

February 7, 2005

Janis Mitchell has been involved in the technology industry for over eleven years before being named Small Business Person of the Year 2003 by the Columbus Chamber of Commerce. Business First magazine named Mitchell as one of Columbus's Most Remarkable Women in 2004 for her accomplishments and involvement in the community while growing her company. She founded Info Fortress Solutions in January 2000 which she then sold to Betrusted, Inc., the world's largest security company owned by Bank One. With the acquisition, Mitchell served as President of Betrusted Consulting for the Americas and is responsible for managing and growing the professional services group domestically. The centerpiece of the professional services group at Betrusted is the Enterprise Security Framework, a comprehensive model for designing, implementing and operating security and privacy services

Prior to joining Info Fortress Solutions, Inc., Mitchell served as Director of Sales and Marketing for techmate, Inc. She was responsible for initiating a professional services practice that delivers expert installation, implementation and integration to enterprise storage vendors and their clients. In addition she was responsible for launching sales of the technical services practice delivering project-based, results-oriented IT infrastructure consulting solutions directly to clients. Techmate was founded in 1993 with the initial 2 founders, she joined them early 1994 exploding their consulting practice to a team of 28 consultants strong.

In 1991, she was appointed Vice President of Sales for ExeuTrain offices in Columbus, Toledo, Pittsburgh and Charleston West Virginia, reporting to the CEO. Before being appointed to that position, she was the sales manager for a medical cardiology equipment manufacturer..

Mitchell holds a B.A from the Ohio State University and is a Registered Security Industry Professional. Janis has been an active member, now leader of 4H since 1972 . She as served as Vice President of the non-profit Westerville Symphony league.

Janis and her husband Michael, reside in Westerville, Ohio with their wonderful children Alexandria and Zachary Mitchell. Both Janis and her husband are actively involved in the community.